J. E. WARD, Associate Editor.

INDIANS vs. MISSIONARIES.

&c. Possibly they do, but we beg to be excused from receiving it at the hands of its editor. The soldiers who fought at Sand Creek were our citizens. We know them personally—many of them intimately. We know that they are honorable, high minded men, as upright and just in their walks in life as the Tribune editor can be, and we have serious fears that when he gets to Heaven, where we know he intends going, "from the remark he made"—he will not be able to see up to where they sit, unless he takes along a better glass than the one he is accustomed to using when he looks at Indian hostilities on the plains.

Our people endorse the punishment of the savages, because in that lies our only hope for self preservation. We submitted to their outrages for five years. Hundreds of our citizens fell by their hands. Millions of our property was taken or destroyed by them. Many of the soldiers who helped to punish them so severely at Sand Creek, had personal grievances to avenge. Their wives and children, fathers and brothers, had been cruelly murdered in cold blood by these same Indians. Had they not done it? But it is useless to argue the question with such as the Tribune

"A man prejudiced against his will,
Is the same as one convinced against."

It will ever see the Indian and blame the white man under any circumstances. In its eyes the pioneer has no rights that either the Indians or itself are bound to respect.

The Tribune editor is more temperate in his denunciations, but vents its malignity as ever now against the Methodist church, and the ministers in Colorado who endorsed Colonel Chivington. There are journals and papers who are [illegible] careful upon the track it takes, without one attempting the task.

The Tribune is the most despicable sheet that ever issued from the press. It claims the credit of having made Colorado what it is, while the speeches of Gov. Dennison, of its citizens, during his administration, prove the contrary. It is not to be borne that Colorado should be thus misrepresented. We would have been quite willing that the goods didn't cost anything, and were freighted to Fort Lyon by Pete Sam. Their before mentioned, was interested in the Colley Indian trade, a [illegible] who has lived with the Indians for thirty or forty years, and is more like them than he is a white man. He and a half breed, were among the most troublesome enemies the whites had to deal with. He was [illegible] at Sand Creek. They were the witnesses who [illegible] before the committee. Upon their testimony and Jack Wright's pamphlet, the Tribune sums up the case, enters judgment and pronounces sentence.

The meaning "Pollywog" of this article, would, doubtless, feel honored by being included with the Tribune and Republican, but we cannot place it in such Demagogue company. Where her knowledge there can be no crime. The "Pollywog" is innocent and harmless.

ON THE PLAINS.

Mr. P. D. Miller, Esq., writes us an interesting letter from Nebraska Territory, fifteen miles below Shum's Ferry, from which we glean the following items:

The roads are almost impassable, on account of the mud occasioned by recent heavy rains. The grass on the Platte was never better than it is the present season. From Denver, up the cut off, to a point fifty miles below Kearney, Mr Miller counted forty-five hundred and fifty five wagons on their way up, and judged that about the same number were going down after freight. A large number of emigrants from Illinois, Iowa and Minnesota, bound for Colorado, are on the road with excellent outfits of stock. As far as the eye can see over the long, level plains, trains from one to five miles in length, of covered wagons are in view, coming and going. Two travelers do not have much conversation in the Indians, and every precaution is taken against their "friendly" raids.

Some of the soldiers of Michigan regiments, on their way up express a great deal of dissatisfaction at having to come out to fight Indians. It is said that many of them are deserting.

Horses, mules and cattle have been stolen almost nightly, between Julesburg and Kearney. The Indians are not accused of these thefts. Part of the stolen stock has been recovered. It was found secreted in the brush on the islands of the Platte. The best stock on the road is usually selected by the thieves. A few doses of the same kind that was served out to the two thieves in El Paso county, recently, it is thought would be beneficial to these stock jobbers.

In a short time there will be substantial pontoon bridges laid across the Platte, at Kearney, and the Loup Fork, at Columbus. The crossing at Shinn's Ferry is very good.

The way the work on the Pacific Rail road is being pushed along, makes Mr. Miller think it will not be long till we shall hear the snort of the iron horse in Denver.

Crops are looking finely along the Platte. The large stacks of wheat and luxuriant field of waving corn, looks as though Colorado need not suffer for want of these staples, while the present facilities for transportation exist.

FROM SOUTHERN COLORADO.

James Roberts, Esq., of Colorado City, furnishes us with the following items of interest:

The crop prospects on the Fontaine qui Bouille are not as bad as was anticipated. About a half crop will be secured.

A joint stock company is organizing, with the purpose of constructing a good road to the South Park. Road to run on an easy grade up the Fontaine qui Bouille, instead of taking the old road over the rugged hills near Colorado City. This will make it one of the very best roads from the valley to the Park.

A number of houses are to be built in Colorado City, the coming fall, among which are a school house and parsonage.

The opening of the Smoky Hill route across the plains will enable the enterprising citizens of El Paso to construct a road that will be in an almost direct line from the river market towns through their county to the exceedingly rich mineral regions in and around South Park. These roads will shorten the distance considerably, and contribute large[illegible] to the development of the county. We are much pleased to hear of this spirit of enterprise, and wish those who engage in it abundant success.

ARTICLE I.

BOUNDARIES.

Section 1. The boundaries of the State of Colorado are declared and established as follows: Beginning at the point of intersection of the thirty-seventh parallel of north latitude with the twenty-fifth meridian of longitude west from Washington, counting from the meridian of the Observatory at Cadiz, Spain, which point is the initial point of the boundary line between the United States and the Republic of Mexico; thence west along said thirty-seventh parallel of north latitude to the thirty-second meridian of longitude west from Washington; thence north on said meridian to the fortieth parallel of north latitude; thence east on said parallel to the twenty-fifth meridian of longitude west from Washington; thence south on said meridian to the initial point of beginning.

ARTICLE II.

BILL OF RIGHTS.

Section 1. All men are by nature free and equal, and have certain inherent rights, among which are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

Sec. 2. All persons shall be secured by this constitution in the enjoyment of their rights of person, property, reputation and character; and when any of these rights are invaded, the party injured shall have a remedy by due course of law, which shall be speedy, and without delay, and in the manner prescribed by law.

Sec. 3. All political power is inherent in the people, and all free governments are founded on their authority, and are instituted for the protection, security and benefit of the people; and they have the right to alter, reform or abolish the government in such manner as they may think proper.

Sec. 4. The right of trial by jury shall remain inviolate.

Sec. 5. All persons shall be bailable by sufficient sureties, except for capital offenses, when the proof is evident or the presumption great; excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor shall cruel punishments be inflicted.

Sec. 6. The writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended, unless in case of rebellion or invasion the public safety shall require it.

Sec. 7. No ex post facto law, nor law impairing the obligation of contracts, or making any irrevocable grant of special privileges or immunities, shall be passed by the General Assembly.

Sec. 8. No person shall be imprisoned for debt, except for the non-payment of fines and penalties imposed for violation of law, or in cases of strong presumption of fraud.

Sec. 9. The military shall be subordinate to the civil power.

Sec. 10. No person shall be disturbed in his private affairs or his home invaded without authority of law.

Sec. 11. The people shall have the right freely to assemble together for their common good, and to apply to those invested with the powers of government for redress of grievances by petition or remonstrance.

Sec. 12. No law shall be passed impairing the freedom of speech; every person shall be free to say, write or publish whatever he will on any subject, being responsible for all abuse of that liberty; and in all suits and prosecutions for libel, the truth thereof may be given in evidence to the jury, and if it shall appear to the jury that the matter charged as libelous is true, and was published with good motives and for justifiable ends, the party shall be acquitted; and the jury shall have the right to determine the law and the fact.

Sec. 13. The people have the right to bear arms for their common defence and security; but standing armies, in time of peace, are dangerous to liberty, and shall not be tolerated, and the military power shall be in strict subordination to the civil power.

Sec. 14. No soldier shall in time of peace be quartered in any house without the consent of the owner, nor in time of war except in a manner prescribed by law.

Sec. 15. No bill of attainder, ex post facto law, nor law impairing the obligation of contracts, shall be passed.

Sec. 16. No person shall be attainted of treason, except upon the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act, or upon confession in open court.

Sec. 17. The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended, unless when in case of rebellion or invasion the public safety shall require it.

Sec. 18. No distinctions or privileges shall ever be granted which do not belong equally to citizens or classes of citizens.

ARTICLE III.

DISTRIBUTION OF POWERS.

Section 1. The powers of the government are divided into three distinct departments—the Legislative, Executive and Judicial; and no person or collection of persons charged with the exercise of powers properly belonging to one of these departments shall exercise any power properly belonging to either of the others, except as in this Constitution expressly provided.

ARTICLE IV.

LEGISLATIVE.

Section 1. The Legislative power of the State shall be vested in a General Assembly consisting of a Senate and House of Representatives, both to be elected by the people.

Sec. 2. The first election for members of the General Assembly shall be held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November, A.D. 1876. The terms of office of members of the General Assembly shall be two years and until their successors are elected and qualified. The sessions of the General Assembly shall commence on the second Wednesday in January next after the election of its members, unless the Governor shall in the meantime convene the General Assembly by proclamation.

Sec. 3. The number of senators shall not be less than one-third nor more than one-half of the number of representatives.

Sec. 4. Senators and representatives shall be apportioned among the several counties according to the number of inhabitants, as near as may be, excluding Indians not paying taxes, persons in the military service of the United States, and persons living in territory not organized into counties. The first apportionment shall be made by the first General Assembly, and shall remain unchanged until the first session of the General Assembly after the return of the next census of the United States. The census of the State taken in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-five, and every ten years thereafter, shall be the basis of apportionment. The number of representatives may be increased at the regular session of the General Assembly next preceding the taking of the census of the United States, in proportion to the increase of population during the preceding ten years, but the whole number of representatives shall never exceed seventy-five until the population of the State shall exceed one million, and the General Assembly may at any session increase the number of representatives to not more than one hundred, apportioning them among the several districts according to population.

Sec. 5. Senators shall be elected for the term of four years, and representatives for the term of two years, from districts established by law, and no county shall be entitled to more than one senator, nor more than three representatives, except as otherwise provided in this Constitution.

Sec. 6. Senators and representatives shall be citizens of the United States, and shall have resided within the limits of the State one year next preceding their election, unless absent on the business of the United States or this State, and shall have resided within the district or county for which they may be chosen six months next preceding their election, and shall be qualified electors therein.

Sec. 7. No person holding any office under the United States, or this State, except notaries public and officers of the militia, shall be eligible to the General Assembly, nor shall any person be eligible who shall have been convicted of bribery, perjury or other infamous crime.

Sec. 8. Each house shall be the judge of the qualifications, elections and returns of its own members, and a majority of each house shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and may compel the attendance of absent members, in such manner and under such penalties as each house may provide.

Sec. 9. Each house shall choose its own officers, determine the rules of its proceedings, and punish members for disorderly conduct, and may, with the concurrence of two-thirds, expel a member, but not a second time for the same cause, and shall have all other powers necessary for the legislative department of a free state.

Sec. 10. Members of the General Assembly shall receive for their services a compensation to be fixed by law, and paid out of the treasury of the State, but no increase of compensation shall take effect during the session at which such increase is made. No member shall, during the time for which he may be elected, be appointed to any civil office of profit under this State, which shall have been created, or the emoluments of which may have been increased, during such time, except such office as may be filled by election by the people.

Sec. 11. Members of the General Assembly shall in all cases, except treason, felony or breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest during the session of the General Assembly, and for ten days next before the commencement and after the termination of each session. For any speech or debate in either house, the members shall not be questioned in any other place.

Sec. 12. Any person who shall have been convicted of embezzling or defaulting as a public officer, or of any infamous crime, before the election or appointment, shall be incapable of holding any office of trust or profit in this State.

Sec. 13. Every bill which shall have passed both houses of the General Assembly shall be presented to the Governor before it becomes a law. If he approve, he shall sign it; but if he disapprove, he shall return it, with his objections, to the house in which it originated, which shall enter the objections upon its journal, and proceed to reconsider it. If after such reconsideration two-thirds of the members elected to that house shall agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent, with the objections, to the other house, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered, and if approved by two-thirds of the members elected to that house, it shall become a law. But in such cases the vote of both houses shall be determined by yeas and nays, to be entered upon the journals of each house respectively. If any bill shall not be returned by the Governor within three days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the same shall be a law unless the General Assembly, by its adjournment, prevent such return, in which case it shall be filed, with his objections, in the office of the Secretary of State, within fourteen days after such adjournment, or become a law.

Sec. 14. Every order, resolution or vote to which the concurrence of both houses may be necessary, except on questions of adjournment, and on questions relating solely to the internal affairs of the two houses, shall be presented to the Governor, and before it shall take effect be approved by him, or, being disapproved, shall be repassed by two-thirds of both houses according to the rules and limitations prescribed in case of a bill.

Sec. 15. The General Assembly shall provide for the organization of cities, and other municipal corporations, by general laws. It shall also provide for the incorporation of villages, without the necessity of special acts of the General Assembly, but all such laws may be altered, amended or repealed by special acts passed by a vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house.

Sec. 16. The General Assembly shall not pass local or special laws in any of the following enumerated cases, that is to say: Changing the names of persons; laying out, opening, altering and working roads or highways; vacating roads, town plats, streets, alleys and public grounds; locating or regulating the location of county buildings; providing for the management of common schools; regulating the rate of interest on money; the opening and conducting of any election, or designating the place of voting; the sale or mortgage of real estate belonging to minors or others under disability; the protection of game or fish; the incorporation of cities, towns or villages, or changing or amending the charter of any town, city or village; the punishment of crimes and misdemeanors; the assessment or collection of taxes; extending the time for the collection of taxes; giving effect to invalid deeds, wills or other instruments; summoning or impaneling grand or petit juries; providing for the management of county property; the limitation of civil actions; giving validity to promissory notes, bills of exchange, or other written instruments; declaring any person of age; or for the purpose of relieving any person or persons from the disabilities attached to infancy or coverture; for the punishment of any crime or misdemeanor; or the remission of fines, penalties or forfeitures; regulating the practice in courts of justice; providing for changing the venue in civil or criminal cases; or for any matter where a general law can be made applicable. All laws passed contrary to the provisions of this section shall be void. The General Assembly shall have power to pass laws on all proper subjects, and all laws shall have a uniform operation throughout the State, and no exemption shall be claimed from the operation of any general law on any subject or for any purpose mentioned in this section, nor shall the General Assembly indirectly enact special or local laws by the partial repeal of a general law; but laws repealing local or special laws may be passed.

Sec. 17. The General Assembly shall not grant any extra compensation to any public officer, agent or contractor after the service shall have been rendered or the contract entered into, nor pay any claim against the State, in whole or in part, which may have been audited and allowed under a general law, nor authorize the payment of any claim created against the State by any county, city, town or other municipal corporation, unless such claim shall have been audited and allowed under such general law as may be passed providing for the auditing of such claims, before the passage of the act authorizing the payment of the same.

Sec. 18. The General Assembly shall not authorize any county, city, town, township or other municipal corporation to become a stockholder in any joint stock company, corporation or association whatever, or to raise money for, or loan its credit to, or in aid of any such company, corporation or association, unless a majority of the electors voting at an election to be provided by law shall assent thereto.

Sec. 19. The General Assembly shall not pass any law authorizing any person or persons, association or corporation to issue bills, checks or paper money, or to receive deposits for the purpose of issuing bills, checks or paper money.

Sec. 20. The General Assembly shall not pass any law authorizing the issue of any bonds, except as provided by law.

Sec. 21. The General Assembly shall provide for the election by the people of all officers whose offices are created by this Constitution, and whose election is not herein provided for, and shall fill all vacancies occurring in offices created by this Constitution, unless otherwise provided by law.

Sec. 22. The General Assembly shall have no power to release or extinguish, or authorize the release or extinguishment, in whole or in part, of the indebtedness, liability or obligation of any corporation or individual to this State or to any county, city, town or other municipal corporation therein, except by the payment into the treasury thereof, in good faith, or the sale and discharge of such indebtedness, liability or obligation at not less than the full value thereof, to be ascertained by an appraisement to be made under such regulations as may be prescribed by law.

Sec. 23. The General Assembly shall have no power to authorize any county, city, town or other municipal corporation to become indebted in any manner or for any purpose to an amount, including existing indebtedness, exceeding three per centum upon the value of the taxable property therein, to be ascertained by the last assessment for State and county taxes previous to the incurring of such indebtedness; provided, that with the approval of two-thirds of the electors thereof voting at an election to be provided by law, any city, town or county may become indebted in a larger amount for the construction or purchase of water works, or for the purchase or construction of gas works, sewers, or electric lighting works for the supply of water, gas, sewerage or electric lights to such city, town or county, or for the improvement of streets, parks or boulevards, or for any two or more of such purposes, in an amount not exceeding five per centum upon the value of the taxable property therein, to be ascertained as aforesaid; but bonds issued in excess of three per centum shall be payable, principal and interest, solely from the income and revenue of the water works, gas works, sewerage or electric lighting works, or other property, or special fund, arising from the ownership and operation of the works, property or improvements for the purchase or construction of which they were issued, and shall not be a general obligation of the city, town or county issuing the same.

Dad is Growing Old, John.

BY J. G. A. WOOD.

Ay, Dad is grow ng old, John,
His eyes re gaining dim,
And tears have on his sh ulders laid,
A heavy weight for him
But you and I are young on hale,
And each a vigorous m n,
And we'll make his load as light
As can be we can.

How oft to take the brunt John,
At cradle and the plow,
And earnest our porridge by the sweat
Of honest brows of ours;
Yet never heard we him complain,
We ne'er for that shall be,
For he's given a life sweet
To his children dear.

But when our hopes are high came, John,
And lady grace each im
He flung it as to the winds to fell,
And joined all with him
Our sweethearts and babes awaith
And never a sigh,
Look that the heaven the sail,
Brave mothers the main.

Now we to rest the van John,
With wrath flood and fire,
A life of work time rest the rest,
And all the easy years;
And when the end John, you know,
Is reached at last,
To be Grave it take Dutch time,
In a and dad as the war.

I heard yesterday Mate, John,
And what you say,
That at last the locks,
Have got of her head so gray,
I do remember well,
When any there called her such,
And swore he'd have her long and like
Age as the oak of years.

Her I we and married, John,
Her sweetheart and friend,
And years have passed each toiled
And love deepened
Her sorrows and joys,
Her children and home,
And she is the wife
Of my heart

...and in a few days after sale of ... the sloop-of-war Oneida, ...ake took her departure, leaving only one, the gunboat Port Royal, to guard the Port.

NEW YORK, August 2.—A London newspaper states that Melvin, the confidential agent of Maximilian, had held a conference with Lord Palmerston, during his recent visit to London, but failed in his efforts to induce the latter to alter the rebellious policy of the English government. Lord Palmerston is represented as having told Melvin, that England would continue to stand aloof from Mexican affairs, and that he should do nothing which might be regarded as ...by the government of the United States.

FROM COLORADO GULCH.

COLORADO GULCH, C. T., July 23, '65.

ED. NEWS:—Everything is moving along as usual in this section of the Territory. The old rimrocked nuts as it has been wont to do for years past. Speaking of sunset, puts me in mind of those beautiful lines of Pope, which are more applicable to a Rocky Mountain sunset than any other portion of God's moral ...that it was ever my fortune to visit:

"Now in the sal'ry of the west the bold sun dies
Like a tired monarch fanned to rest, and the mad sire of evening's rays
While round his couches golden rim, the realm clouds like ruddy
Straw flag each others light to dim, and catch his last smile ere he sleeps."

The rainy season is over, from every appearance, and we are enjoying splendid weather, warm days and cool nights. Mining is being prosecuted with varying success. Those that have their diggings open are doing very well. Forty ounces to one pit, about twenty-four feet square, is the largest run I have heard of in this Gulch.

Burt & Co., of California Gulch, have made some good runs, I am not informed to the exact amounts, or I would give you the figures. Two or three other companies in California Gulch are doing well, at least so I am informed. Messrs. Cree & Jones have sold out their stock of goods to Dr. Fouts, and have purchased an interest in McCannon & Co.'s diggings. His Excellency, Gov. Evans, paid us a visit some two weeks since, on business connected with the Utes. But "lo, the poor Indian whose untutored mind clothes him in ...knit handkerchief, and leaves him nude behind," had skedaddled some time previous to the Governor's arrival, probably through excessive modesty, on account of his scanty wardrobe. From the conduct of "Colorado," while here,—who by the way is a rich Indian, as he informed me at least—I should judge that the Utes are peaceably disposed toward the whites; but rather bitter toward the Mexican population. There is considerable thorough prospecting going on in this section, for new gulches, but so far with rather indifferent success.

New discoveries of rich gold and silver bearing lodes are made every few days in this county, but do not create the excitement that such discoveries usually do. Probably Argentine District has caught most of the excitable individuals this season.

As the fall election draws near at hand, candidates for office are beginning to show themselves. There is only one office that is likely to go a begging in this county—that of County Recorder. Immediately upon it becoming known to the dear people that a new Recorder was to be selected at the fall election, one very self sacrificing individual stepped forward and expressed a willingness to run for the office, and thus immolate himself upon the altar of his country. Evidently afterward, seventeen more patriotic, capable and honest individuals came forward and said "they would like to be immolated, too." After canvassing the matter over very thoroughly, I have come to the conclusion that sixteen of the candidates have got the inside track; as for the seventeenth one, God pity him! his excessive modesty ruined him. But joking aside, some one will doubtless secure the office.

The "State question," seems to be more popular than last season. I am of the opinion, that if the question does not get into the manipulating hands of the politicians, but goes to the people upon its merits, it will carry by an overwhelming majority. Colorado certainly needs a full representation in Congress, that she may demand the rights and immunities, to which her central position, and rich mineral resources entitle her. The location of the main trunk of the Pacific R. R. through our Territory, is a weighty consideration. That the road will be built, and that right speedily, has passed from a theory to a problem. It behooves us all to take a deep and unflagging interest in this matter. When, by the aid of our sister States of the west, we have accomplished this task, then will our property be greatly enhanced in value. Population will flow in upon us. The Sierras of our rock-bound Territory, will resound with the hum of laborious industry, and the "wilderness be made to blossom as the rose."

GRAPE CULTURE.

TABER, FREMONT CO., IOWA, Aug. 2, 1865.

EDITORS NEWS:—My attention has recently been called to the fact that the grape vine, in the wild state, grows vigorously in your Territory. This being the case, I will call your attention to the fact that, so far, it has been proved that wherever the wild grape grows, there the planted varieties of the same grape will do well. I have reason for believing that there are those in the Territory who would like to cultivate these varieties in their own gardens, as well as to make a business of raising the grape.—The great difficulty, I apprehend, is in obtaining the roots. To transport them direct from nurseries east of here is about the same as to throw away the money, for they will almost certainly injure in their transit. To remedy this, and to insure the best vines, in good condition, to the citizens of Colorado, I propose to send them from here vines of the most hardy varieties, raised in the best vineyard in the United States, under the most favorable circumstances to insure the healthiest growth, after having the benefit of six months in my own grounds, by which means all their dormant powers are brought into full exercise after arrival days since confinement and they are in the best possible condition to ripen with passion. I have the best opportunities for inoculating and have those desiring them, ...my experience in the cultivation of the vine and doing business with some of the best vineyards in the United States.

I have recommended those who have ...grounds, to procure on their land to grow the grape myself succeeded well, but I will change views with the Colorado, for the next year running a large ...quantities grapes. SPECIAL NOTICES.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN,

THIRD SERIES.

$230,000,000

...Secretary of the Treasury, ... subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the public the Third Series of Treasury Notes, bearing interest at three lawful per cent. interest per annum, known as the 7-30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5 20 Six per cent. GOLD-BEARING BONDS

These bonds are now worth a handsome premium, are large exempt, as are all the Government Bonds. I am State County and Municipal taxation, which falls from one to three per cent. per annum, their value according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7 3/10 per cent. amounts to
One cent per day on a $50 note,
Two cents per day on a $100 note.
Ten cents per day on a $500 note.
20 cents per day on a $1,000 note.
One dollar per day on a $5,000 note

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions.

The Notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest on gold coupons at 6 per cent. instead of 7 3/10 in currency. Subscribers will deduct the interest in currency up to July 15th at the rate at which they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the seven-thirties will commence on the 1st of June and will be made promptly and continued only after that date.

The attractive features in the great success which has attended the popular loans and equal opportunities for all purchasers make it certain that the present will be equally successful, and subscriptions will be received at the Banks and Bankers throughout the country, who are authorized to give all information desired.

Pond is an old printer and editor, and "Butterfield's road hands" say he deserves the credit. The Thirteenth Missouri is composed of the veterans of several regiments of the old Missouri Brigade, and for the past four years have been fighting bush-whackers and guerrillas of their native State, and have made their mark. The balance of the regiment has, for some time, been on duty in the District of Upper Arkansas, under Gen. Ford. Both these corps have fought side by side with our gallant Colorado boys, in Missouri and we know "they'll do."

Corporal Maxwell, Troop L, 1st U. S. Cavalry, California volunteers, has been tried before a court martial at Santa Fe, of which Col. R. H. Carnes was president, for burglary, ... and breach of arrest. He was found guilty and sentenced to be dismissed the service with loss of all pay, and to be confined at hard labor, with ball and chain, three years. Before the same court, Lieut. John Mason, Adjutant of the same regiment, was found guilty of making false returns, violation of the 38th Article of War, gross neglect of duty, and false returns of rations on hand, and ordered to make good to the subsistence department the rations short, and to be dismissed the service with the loss of pay. Harriet Harry Simpson and Private Frank Wilcox, Co. B, 1st Vet. Bat. Colorado Cavalry, have been tried by court martial, at Fort Marcy, N. M., for disobedience of orders and selling government horses; found guilty and sentenced to be confined at hard labor, with ball and chain, three years, and to be dishonorably discharged the service.

We have had the pleasure of making the acquaintance of Lieutenant J. B. Fish of the Signal Corps who accompanied the Butterfield Expedition as Engineer. He was detailed by Gen. Dodge to make a survey of the route, and as he accompanied Capt. Green in 1864 in the same capacity, he was, from his previous experience, assisted by his old notes, enabled to greatly straighten and shorten the route. Lieutenant Comstock belonged to the Forty-fifth Ohio, and was Chief Quartermaster of the Signal Corps, Military Division of the Mississippi, during its occupation of 1865, and was Chief Quartermaster of the Army of the Border, in its campaign against Price last fall, and for four years has done gallant service for his country. He is accomplished in all useful and accomplished trade, and is making this his wedding tour. We bespeak for the gallant Lieutenant and his fair bride a pleasant trip.

From personal observation during an extensive ride in the country the past week, we are glad to find that the prospects of the farmers in this vicinity are not so dark as has been generally believed. The "friendly" grasshoppers have not entirely cleaned out the rural districts, and the enhanced prices that will be obtained for their ravages will leave most of our farmers in a pretty good fix.

St. Paul, August 4.—The sensation of the day is General Meagher's speech, last night, to the Irish Immigration Society. He cautioned Irishmen to beware of copperheads, and not to be drawn into opposition to the Government. He came out boldly for negro suffrage, saying that a Democrat who should deny the negro the right to vote is not worthy to participate in the triumph of the nation. It is seldom that such an audience as he had hears such wholesome doctrine.

General Meagher has just been appointed Secretary of Montana Territory.

The Irish stand by General Meagher, notwithstanding his denunciations of copperheads, and when American copperheads denounced him, a quarrel ensued. The Chief of Police called him a coward, and then arrested an Irishman because he called him (the chief) a liar.

New Orleans, August 8.—An extensive fire occurred at Galveston, involving heavy loss. It is, doubtless, the design of parties to burn the town, to hide transactions of villains in Galveston, never before equaled.

Texas has been divided into three military districts. General Turner takes command of the Galveston District, relieving General Granger.

The steamer George Cromwell arrived from New York.

Washington, Aug. 9.—The rebel General Hill, committed to the work house several days ago for indecent and disorderly conduct, has been released, two mechanics having yesterday paid his fine.

The prize money from about five hundred naval captures, is announced for distribution, at the Fourth Auditor's Bureau.

Toronto, C. W., August 9—General Grant and suite arrived here on a special train from Montreal, this morning, and immediately departed, by steamer, for Niagara Falls. A large crowd assembled at the railroad depot, although his arrival was not generally known, and an impromtu hand-shaking took place. There was a call upon the General for a speech, but to this call he replied with a smile and a shake of the head.

Norwich, Conn., Aug. 9.—The Norwich Line steamboat train from New London for Boston, this morning, ran off the track one mile north of New London. Four cars were plunged into the river. One passenger was killed, and twelve or fifteen others injured.

St. Louis, Aug. 9.—The Dispatch, of this evening announces that dispatches have been received from New York announcing that the Atlantic cable is a failure.

THE MONT CENIS TUNNEL.

The first series of the official trials on the summit railway over the Mont Cenis was recently concluded; and I have received from a competent judge, who was present, a most satisfactory account of the result. The trials made expressly for the French Government were over two or three days before. At the subsequent trials the English and Austrian Governments were represented, Captain Tyler, R.E., being the commissioner for the former. The experiments were to be made with the loads, and at the rate of speed required to carry out the programme of the projectors for trains crossing the mountain between Suse and St. Michel, carrying, that is to say, fifty passengers, their baggage and the mail, and performing the distance in 4½ hours. But it appears that, throughout the trials, the stipulated speed was greatly exceeded. The portion of the high road over the Cenis that has been granted for the railway line is the outside, skirting, that is to say, the edge of the precipice; and this may sound a little alarming, suggestive of a peep down into the abyss out of the carriage windows, and of the cliff crumbling under the weight of a ponderous train. But it is plain that measures had to be taken to obviate even the shadow of such an awful risk; and persons who have well examined and repeatedly traveled over the portion of the line already constructed, have expressed a most decided opinion that no safer railway can be made. It is hardly necessary to say that, until the contractors had thoroughly satisfied themselves of securing complete safety, it would have been folly for them to embark at all in the business. Such an accident as a train toppling off the Mont Cenis would be likely to shut it up forever. Next month the trials for goods-trains are to come off. The experimental engines have been running on the mountain with loads of [illegible] tons to twenty tons, and at the rate of from twelve to eighteen kilometers per hour, on gradients of one in thirteen and curves of forty meters radius. I think this will be admitted to be rather a novelty in steam locomotion. It seems now scarcely to admit of a doubt that in the course of the summer of 1866, in time for the autumnal streams of travelers into Italy, the Mont Cenis will be traversed by rail in 4½ hours, or some less, from St. Michel to Susa, near the Italian entrance journey, on wheels [illegible], according to season, lasting [illegible] at that time. It is to be hoped that the department to which [illegible] will not [illegible] to publish it. Boys.—Last evening our [illegible] of quills a refreshing [illegible] the fence and [illegible] the house. [illegible] on [illegible] to the [illegible] by head talking [illegible]. The [illegible] conversation [illegible] to [illegible] from a [illegible] gentleman on the opposite side of the street, as follows:

Paternal Head—"Bill, Harry, look at the sojers chasin' the man with a light shirt."

Maternal Head—"Fire [illegible] at all Mike; I'm not [illegible] the wagin shafts."

P. H.—"There [illegible] only he have a brickbat [illegible].

M. H.—"Is the [illegible] scope wid 'em, I don't know."

P. H.—"There they go now! They are right forninst him. O, look o' that! be jabers, he has the brickbats!"

M. H.—"Two brickbats! O, the bogs!"

P. H.—"Well the boys will dam soon have him from behind thim brickbats."

At this juncture we reached the door and found about a dozen of the provost guard, advancing in two columns, upon a good looking fellow in a white shirt. He was armed with two well defined [illegible] and threatening to confront the head of the first man that advanced. The provo's marched him with considerable alacrity, and finding himself outflanked, he changed front to the rear, retreated through our counting-room and entrenched himself behind the imposing stone, still retaining his arms. In this movement he came down on our right flank with such rapidity that we were doubled up and thrown back upon [illegible] alley and our heavy editor, who was in close our left. Although somewhat disconcerted he was not scattered, and seemed determined to fight it out on that line. The provo's in the meantime advanced and gained a position commanding the works, and by a rapid and skilful movement a detachment was thrown in the rear, cutting off the retreat of the enemy by the back door. Finding himself surrounded he surrendered, and upon being ordered to lay down his arms, he dropped one stand upon the foot of our foreman, and the other upon the alley of five ells, both much to the consternation of said foreman. One of the provost guard, while executing a rapid movement to protect the rear of the line, ran against Joe Bright's widow, and piled a stickfull of solid mission. Joe says he never had such a hankering to be a mule in his life. The last we saw of the man in the white shirt, he had his wrists tied in a manner to defy the power of the Davenport boys to unloose, the guard executing the movement "to the rear by the right flank pass the defile," with their prisoner in front, emphatically expressing the opinion that he was not to blame.

NATIONAL BANK BLOCK.—We paid a visit to this new and elegant edifice this morning, and were shown over the premises by Mayor Clark, under whose superintendance it was constructed. The people of Denver are justly proud of this new evidence of the sagacity of our mountain men. It was built and is owned by Mr. Ebenezer Smith, of the firm of Smith, Fowler, Garland City, and cost $45,000. There were five hundred thousand brick and one hundred and twenty-five thousand feet of lumber used in its construction, and the item of labor alone cost $15,000. It is one hundred and fifty-five feet on F street by fifty feet on Blake, and two stories high, with a basement and cellar under the whole ten feet high. The rooms on the corner of Blake and F are occupied by the National Bank, being divided into three rooms and a large vault; the Bank proper, fronting on F street, is thirty feet, Cashier's room, 12x10, and the Director's room in the rear 12x15 feet, with an entrance on F street. All of these rooms are furnished with the latest improvements for convenience and comfort. On this floor are also two stores, one on Blake street 25x75 feet, and five on F street 25x50 feet, occupied as grocery houses. The rooms on this floor are fourteen feet high, and finished in the best style, with fresco work on the ceiling and the walls in imitation of oak, pantaloons. The front basement, fifty feet square, is occupied as saloons. The second story is divided into rooms of the same size, on either side of a wide hall, and are all occupied for the various offices connected with the Quartermaster's District of the Platte and South Park Sub-District. The rooms on this story are twelve feet high. Messrs. [illegible] & Thomas have made an [illegible] in their mining operations in this community, and we are glad to see them stand their ground in the success of our mines by investing in them. They [illegible] Park Block, than any [illegible] has done to develop this country by their individual enterprise, and by [illegible] to [illegible]. The [illegible] of this block as at present occupied, amounts to over $12,000 per annum.

Let's all go to Cincopin Park to the dandelion-night. We only get a free ride there and back in the hacks from Denver.

—We learn from Coroner Kent that the body found in the river, and reported as that of a man proved to be the carcass of some four-footed animal of unknown species and pedigree.

—Hon. Thomas Francis Meagher has been appointed Secretary of Montana Territory. The General is posted on agricultural proclivities, and made a speech in St. Paul, Minn., recently, warning his Irish friends against them.

ARRIVALS AND DEPARTURES BY COACH From the East; Thos. Means and lady, S. L. Jenks, E. L. Cathan, L. E. Newberg, Richard Quadtrall, Wm. Bowden, Jas. Brood, Jas. Garah. To the East: A. W. Shuriger, J. V. Pomroy, Lieut. J. R. Fitch and lady.

—We had the pleasure of an introduction this morning to Mr. H. B. Clawson, manager of the Salt Lake Theatre; he is also heavily engaged in merchandizing, and is returning to his home from a trip to the States to purchase goods. Our merchants will be glad to make his acquaintance.

ELECTION.—The election for Alderman in the First Ward, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the removal of Alderman Maloney from the ward, resulted in the election of Edward Chase by seventy two majority over John E. Force. The election proceeded quietly, and a very small vote was polled.

—Col. A. G. Boone arrived to day from his place on the Arkansas, looking twenty-five years younger than when we last saw him, in grasshopper time. He reports the crops in his vicinity as looking fine, and much better than was expected. He was accompanied by Col. Craig, from the Huerfano. Col. C. is the largest farmer in southern Colorado.

—The Soldiers' Letter says there is a strong probability that the balance of the 2d Regiment Colorado Cavalry will be mustered out soon. All the men of that regiment whose term of service expires prior to Jan. 1st, 1865, have already received their discharge, leaving only about three hundred of the last recruits of the old Third.

CAPT. GEORGE WEST.—Our old 1860 cotem, has once more took up the quill, and will drive it in behalf of the columns of the News in future. We give him our fist, and welcome him into the midst of the Corps Editorial. We have no fears but that he will conduct his columns in a respectable and courteous manner. We wish you luck George in your new undertaking.—Gazette.

Thank you, I really do take something.

—Capt. C. H. Homstead, formerly chief commissary on Gen. Connor's staff gave us a call this morning. He is on his way to Salt Lake from New Orleans and Shreveport, where has been engaged since the surrender of the confederates in paroling prisoners of the trans-Mississippi army. Capt. H. is an old California editor and printer and a pleasant gentleman. He is now mustered out, and will remain at Salt Lake during the winter.

—We are glad to learn from the Soldiers' Letter that Capt. E. D. Boyd, 2d Colorado Cavalry is rapidly recovering from the effects of his painful accident and is now able to walk, with the aid of crutches. At one time, the surgeons on duty at Fort Riley decided that the limb must be amputated, to save his life. The Captain begged of them to wait another day, when the symptoms were found so favorable that they did not perform the operation.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS.—Very few of our readers are aware that we have had in our city for the last week a genuine Austrian Count. Count Thun and Maj. Prosig, of the Austrian army, arrived by Overland coach about the 10th, and have been quietly viewing the sights in and about Denver, until this morning, when they left on a hunting and fishing tour in the Middle Park. They will return here in a week or two, when they will go to Salt Lake, Oregon, and California, and from there they propose to visit Mexico. Maj. Prosig has a brother who is the Austrian Minister at the Court of that anti-Monroeism down there, Mr. Maximillian.

WHAT WILL BE DONE WITH THE INDIANS

THE MILITIA PAY.

The extreme anxiety of the copperhead organs of Baltimore city to place the Government in a false position in regard to the pay of the Militia, crops out so prominently on the face of the latest but bombastic attacks on the subject, that the veriest tyro in journalism would at once detect it. They are fast becoming odious, not at the beginning and at the end, but in the middle.

We should have much more to say upon this subject ere long; in the mean time, neighbors, "go ahead!" If you want to see the militia all down on you as the United States soldiers already are

NEW YORK, August 10.—Late foreign papers show a rush of emigrants to this country from Europe, setting in with more than usual vehemence. Fifteen thousand Poles are making arrangements with the Swedish Government for transportation to the United States from Norway. Exiles of the most valuable part of the population is very great.

The Herald Paris special says,

It is now estimated from official source, that on the first of May there were one million and half of the able bodied men called in the army and on pay rolls. Since that date there has been discharged little over seven hundred thousand, leaving at present two hundred and thirty thousand still on the army on the pay rolls. The number to be discharged is about three hundred thousand, and are now [illegible] at their several rendezvous to be paid off and mustered out. Others will have been discharged are over four hundred thousand, have been fully paid off and mustered out. The rapidity with which this work has been performed, may be inferred from the fact that the officials in the departments at Washington show there has been paid off and mustered out during the last thirty days seven hundred and six thousand men. The War Department will probably muster out about one half of Sheridan's troops.

NEW YORK, Aug 10. The steamer Salvador brings dates from Rio Janeiro, June 29th, giving an account of a severe naval engagement between the Brazilian fleet and that of Paraguayan steamers and floating batteries, which took place on June 11th, at Riachuelo, just below Corrientes, on the Parana. The battle lasted seven hours. The Paraguayan loss was very heavy, and their slaughter was fearful. The Brazilians were assisted by Brazil tank.

...ing to affect or de... prosperity could be ... We must also have this in... in Congress, that we may secure ... legislation as will make our mining ... more secure, and thus ensure their ... development, and enhance their value. ... then will any that in all these ... things much may not be gained for Col... orado by becoming a State? and it must ... also be quite as evident that the increas... ed benefits which we must derive, (some ... of which have already been mentioned) ... will far over balance the additional ... burdens and expenses.

Third. We cannot but all see and feel ... the paramount necessity for the location ... of the Pacific Railroad, through the in... habited portions of our Territory. From ... the best information now to be had on ... this subject, it would seem that, (if this ... Road is located at all within our limits) ... it will be North of our most populous ... counties, and thus removed some sixty ... to one hundred miles from the localities ... where our people so much desire it. It ... is of vital importance therefore, that we ... act promptly in the adoption of such ... measures, as will secure if possible, the ... construction of this great National high... way through the heart of our Territory; ... every interest we have, demands that ... we do so, and no better way can be point... ed out, than for us to ask immediate ... admission into the Union. We then se... cure the admission of our Senators and ... Representatives into Congress, who be... ing acquainted with our wants, and who ... by their influence and votes can secure ... the necessary amendments to the char... ter of the Road required to secure its ... location as the people want it. Other ... points west and north of us are labor... ing to secure amendments to the charter ... of this Road, adverse and prejudicial to ... the interest of our Territory, and if we ... are blind to the great facts and ad... vantages which we may derive from its ... location, in the heart of our most popu... lous districts, thus securing to our peo... ple the benefit of cheap transportation, ... together with the other numerous bene... fits, that must necessarily flow from the ... early completion of this great National ... improvement, then truly are we a peo... ple unworthy to govern ourselves. But ... we believe better things of you, and con... fidently hope that the energy of our peo... ple will be aroused to the great benefits ... which they may secure for themselves ... and their posterity in this matter, by di... rect and immediate action to secure our ... just rights in the location of this Road. ... If we would secure the early develop... ment of our mines, we must have cheap ... freights and less expensive living. We ... must have increased population, which, ... of course brings with it the necessary la... bor and cap tal required to develope our ... unimproved mines, and by becoming a ... State we may secure all these ends, while ... if we remain in our present state of ... vassalage, we can gain nothing nor ... ought we to expect it.

Fourth—All loyal citizens among us ... must feel a deep and abiding interest in ... the reconstruction policy, to be pursued ... towards the Southern States lately en... gaged in rebellion, and which has to be ... met and settled on some basis at the ... coming session of Congress; but what ... that basis will be cannot now be deter... mined. One thing however is evident, ... that in permitting those States to return ... and exercise again their votes and pow... er in our National councils, it should ... only be done in such a way as to forever ... avoid a recurrence of discord and rebel... lion. The defects and errors in our Con... stitution and laws, which led to the ... war just closed, and resulted in so much ... sacrifice of blood and treasure must be re... moved, and the opportunity for Southern ... rebels ever to renew the contest must ... be prevented. The loyal States desire ... to act justly in this matter and at the ... same time secure permanently and for... ever the blessings of Liberty; they ... desire the votes and counsels of Colora... do, in the settlement of this question, ... and our duty as a loyal people to the ... Government, demands of us that we ... should respond to their request, and as ... a State do what we can to secure and ... maintain the perpetuity of the Union, ... strengthen our national liberties, and ... thus secure perpetual harmony and ... peace to our country. If South Caro... lina is to be admitted into the Union ... again, covered all over with her past ... treason, why should not Colorado, also, ... who sent into the field four regiments of ... volunteers and one battery of as brave ... and loyal soldiers as ever wore the uni... forms of our armies; it is but her right ... and privilege to do so, and we hope her ... loyal people will improve the opportu... nity. Let us then seek admission into ... the Union, and render such aid to the ... loyal States in the re admission of the ... rebel states into the Union as justice ... may require, granting unto them all ... those rights which belong to them as ... free and independent States, consistent ... with the great principles of free govern... ment, and at the same time on such a ... basis as shall forever again prevent ... secession and rebellion and secure the ... peace and liberties of the nation.

Fifth, Another great benefit to be ... derived from a State government is the ... opportunity afforded to the people to ... select their own judicial officers. With... out good and efficient judges, our laws ... are useless and of no benefit to anyone. ... To make them effective they must be ... speedily and justly administered. By ... electing our own judges, we secure all ... these things, and ensure a speedy and ... just administration of our laws, all of ... which is vitally essential to the welfare ... and prosperity of our people. If we ... elect our own judges we shall have men ... who reside among us and whose inter... ests are identical with those of the ... people. We shall have men whom we ... know to be honest and capable, and ... whom the people can hold strictly ... accountable for their acts, in the admin... istration of justice. To continue in our ... present condition is ruinous to all our ... best interests, and for the truth of this ... simple statement we refer you to the ... past. We have never had but one Fed... eral judge who was from our own ... people, and who has resided among us ... and it is as well known to every one that ... he is the only one that has ever given ... satisfaction to the people, in the fulfill... ment of his duties. Is further argu... ment necessary? look back for a mo... ment, and remember that for the last ... three months we have not had a judge ... in the Territory and may not have one ... for some months to come. Our courts ... must go by default; our laws remain ... nugatory, because these judges, appoint... ed by a power which we cannot control, ... have families and interest in the States, ... to which they devote their attention ... leaving their duties here unperformed, ... and thus sacrificing the rights and in... terests of our people. We must there... fore have judges selected from among ... our own people, but to do so we must ... assume the duties and obligations of an ... independent State.

Sixth, We present this subject to you, ... freed from all political combinations of ... party, elections, or election influences, ... and ask you to look beyond all such ... influences, and to view the subject in ... the light of the true interest of Colorado, ... and not to encumber it with any politi... cal or sectional influences. Examine ... carefully the constitution presented for ... your consideration. We believe it to be ... a good one, calculated to increase our ... wealth and population, if adopted, and ... to ensure success and prosperity to our ... people. We ask you to look forward to ... the future, with the same boldness ... and confidence, the same feelings ... and hopes which have heretofore ... prompted and encouraged other Territo... ries to assume a sovereign and inde... pendent existence. Lyon's Kathairon

Katarion is from the Greek word 'Kathiro,' or 'Kathairo,' signifying to cleanse, rejuvenate and restore. This article is what the name sig... nifies. For preserving, restoring and beautify... ing the human hair, it is the most remarkable ... preparation in the world. It is again owned ... and put up by the original proprietor and is ... now made with the same care, skill and attention ... which gave it a sale of over one million ... bottles per annum.

It is a most delightful hair dressing.
It eradicates scurf and dandruff.
It keeps the head cool and clean.
It makes the hair rich, soft and glossy.
It prevents the hair from falling off and ... turning gray.
It restores hair upon bald heads.

Any lady or gentleman who values a ... beautiful head of hair should use Lyon's Kathairon. It ... is known and used throughout the civilized ... world. Sold by all respectable dealers.

MAGNOLIA!

A new toilet delight!
The ladies' treasure!
The gentleman's boon!

The gay world of fashion and elegance is all ... awake to praise

MAGNOLIA WATER,

the "sweetest thing" in toilet water ever dis... covered!

It cools the heated brow.
It yields a delightful and eternal perfume.
It cures musquito bites and stings of insects.
It overcomes the unpleasant effects of per... spiration.
It removes redness, freckles, tan and blotches.
It is cool, refreshing and delicious.
It contains no material injurious to the skin.

Patronized by actresses and opera singers. It is ... what every lady should have. Sold everywhere. ... Try it once and you will use no other colognes, ... perfumery or toilet waters afterwards.

P. H. DRAKE & CO.,
New York.

N. B.—Beware every bottle bears these words, "Agua de Magnolia de Barnes." All others are ... [illegible]

HEIMSTREET'S

Inimitable Hair Restorative
OR COLORING.

Over twenty years' trial has established the ... merits of this article. It is not an instantaneous ... dye composed of lunar caustic, destroying ... the life of the hair, but by a natural process ... gradually changes gray hair to its original color. ... It immediately causes a rapid growth of the hair, and ... frequently restores it upon bald heads. It also ... prevents hair from falling off, and gives the hair a rich ... luxuriance of rare beauty.

All persons troubled with premature baldness ... or hair turning gray, should not despair until ... they have tried Heimstreet. It is sold by all ... druggists, at fifty cents and $1.00 per bottle. ... The trade can be supplied by any wholesale ... agents, Messrs. DEMAS BARNES & CO., New ... York.

MEXICAN
MUSTANG LINIMENT.

The parties in St. Louis and Cincinnati, who ... have been counterfeiting the Mustang Liniment ... under pretence of copartnership, have been ... thoroughly stopped by the courts. To guard ... against further imposition, I have procured ... from the United States Treasury a private steel ... plate revenue stamp which is placed over the ... top of each bottle. Each stamp bears the fac ... simile of my signature, and without which the ... article is a counterfeit, a base and worthless ... imitation. Examine every bottle. This Lini... ment has been long and growing in favor for ... many years. There has existed a fraternity ... who have sought, by all means, to obtain ... the secret, which does not contain any ... decree of its wonderful effects. It is the best ... one out in the world. With its present im... proved ingredients, its effects upon man and ... beast are perfectly remarkable. Sores are healed ... pains relieved, lives saved, valuable animals ... made useful, and untold is unmanned. For cuts, ... bruises, sores, rheumatism, sweenys, bites, ... caked breasts, garget in cows, (this never ... can remedy that should never be dispensed ... with. It should be in every family, used by all ... druggists.

Spoken Cooper's Harem.—Mr. Tibbetts, from Montana, reports that two packs, bearing fifteen thousand dollars in bogus coin were "wrung" a few days since at Gibson's Ferry, Snake River, half way between here and Virginia, Montana. Upon conviction, their "specie payment" plot was "busted," and themselves sent to their "long home" for its redemption."

How is it.—John Taylor said in the Tabernacle last Sunday, with ribald impiety, too profane to be ridiculous, that "we—the Mormons—had entered into a partnership with Jesus Christ!" Brigham, who heard the language, replied that "the Saviour appeared to be a very silent partner in the concern."

There's no place permitted to be open here where even a glass of liquor or a game of billiards may be had. Hard lots on our friends from Colorado.

Come home, Professor; you never can stand it.

—Our Associate editor has gone up to Boulder for a few days' recreation. The boys say he mounted his mule at the front door as Stanton came in through the back yard. Come up and see us Fred; you are safe till Doc. gets back.

—Mrs. L. A. Newburg's millinary and dress-making establishment is becoming the favorite resort of the ladies of Denver and vicinity; she has always the latest fashions and the freshest style of goods from the eastern cities.

—If we had not an elegant turn-out of our own, we would go down to Orman & Jewett's and get one of their gay teams and one of those new buggies and take the maternal head of a ride.

—The Old Elephant Corral is still flourishing as of old, as will be seen by an advertisement in this issue, Mr. Picket retires from the firm. Go and see the "elephant."

—Any one who will have a small house a short distance from this office to let about the middle of September, can get a tenant by applying to the local editor of this paper. No children.

—We hope to find time in a day or two to notice at length several extensive improvements about town. Several fine buildings are going up in different localities.

—A notice is posted on a post near our office as follows: "Don't hatch at this post." That fellow counts his chickens before they are hatched.

—Pine apple cheese, just received, at Davis & Curtis' 1t

—Lightning Fly Killer, fresh supply at Graham's City drug store. 1t

—The finest Bar in the Territory of Colorado, together with fixtures, for sale at Stubbs and Boyd's, Blake street, on Saturday, also 10 cows and calves on Friday. 1t
